Constitution Rule 13

All members are subject to the constitution of the club. Membership of the club is open to all individuals provided they comply with this constitution. No person shall be refused membership on the grounds of race, colour, creed, religion, sex, sexual preference, impairment or disability. All applications for membership will be accompanied by the appropriate annual membership fee, which will thereafter be payable on demand. Fully paid up members will have the right to attend and vote at General or Annual General Meetings, and may be elected to and serve on the Management Committee. All members will receive copies of the constitution and all current bye-laws.

The management shall be entitled to: -

- i) refuse any application for membership on the grounds that such membership would be prejudicial to the objectives of the club as set out in rule 2 of this constitution.
- ii) For good and sufficient reason to refuse renewal of any existing membership or terminate or suspend any membership subject to appeal as detailed in the Code of Conduct.

Subscriptions for 16 and 17 year olds shall be fixed at 50% of the annual subscription for ordinary members. Members in this category must be 16 or 17 years old prior to April 1st of their admission year.
